

In-Home Aide Newsletter- February 2026 Posttest
INFECTION CONTROL

Name: _____ Date: _____

(Mark True or False)

1. Germs are a part of everyday life.

True

False

2. An infection occurs when germs enter the body, increase in number and the body reacts.

True

False

3. Infection control and prevention is important in all aspects of an In-home aide's role with their clients.

True

False

4. Transmission is a way germs move to the susceptible person.

True

False

5. As an In-home aide it will be important to be aware of points of potential transmission of germs.

True

False

6. Standard Precautions are the first of two levels to prevent/control infections.

True

False

7. Hand sanitizer will always kill all types of germs.

True

False

8. Germs are only passed directly from person to person.

True

False

9. In-home aides should follow their agency's guidelines on infection control including what personal protective equipment (PPE) is required in clients' care.

True

False

10. You should always wear gloves if you may come into contact with blood or any bodily fluids.

True

False