In-Home Aide Newsletter- May 2026 Posttest

Dementia and Alzheimer's

Name: _____ Date: _____

Mark True or False

1. Dementia is a broad term used to describe symptoms of cognitive decline.

True ☐ False ☐

2. Dementia is a normal part of aging.

True ☐ False ☐

3. Alzheimer's Disease is the most common type of permanent dementia.

True ☐ False ☐

4. Safety is an important part of caring for a client with Dementia.

True ☐ False ☐

5. You should approach a client with Dementia from the front.

True ☐ False ☐

6. A person with dementia may believe they are living decades in the past.

True ☐ False ☐

7. With Dementia the brain changes over time.

True ☐ False ☐

8. A person with dementia may be unable to express his or her needs because of cognitive losses.

True ☐ False ☐

9. Do not force anyone who is afraid of bathing to take a bath or shower.

True ☐ False ☐

10. There is a cure for Alzheimer's disease.

True ☐ False ☐