

In-Home Aide Newsletter- July 2025 Posttest -Home Environment

ANSWERS

1. In-home aides can observe a client's home environment while providing care in the home.

True

2. Each person's home environment will have unique needs according to the person's functional status and abilities.

True

3. A person's home environment affects safety and quality of life.

True

4. Falls can be related to environmental hazards.

True

5. Unsafe structural problems may also be a safety factor for clients and In-home aides.

True

6. Clutter is never a safety hazard in the home.

False

7. Bathroom safety is important in the client's environment.

True

8. Working with cleaning products would never pose a hazard.

False

9. The need for a comprehensive safety plan is particularly important for a person living with Alzheimer's as the disease progresses.

True

10. Your agency can learn about community resources to assist your clients with environmental safety needs.

True