

In-Home Aide Newsletter- October 2025 Posttest Answers -End of Life

1. End-of-life care is the term used to describe the support and medical care given during the time surrounding death.

True

2. The dying process is the same for each person.

False

3. Palliative care is patient and family care centered that optimizes quality of life by anticipating, preventing, and treating suffering.

True

4. Discomfort during the dying process can come from a variety of sources.

True

5. You can watch for clues that a person may be in pain.

True

6. People nearing the end of life may have spiritual needs as important as their physical concerns.

True

7. A person may have a loss of appetite at the end of life.

True

8. A person is allowed to choose the treatment they choose.

True

9. There are not any ways to make a dying person comfortable.

False

10. Providing good skin care is important to a person who is bedridden.

True