

In-Home Aide Newsletter-October 2026 Posttest- Confidentiality, Privacy, & Client Rights

Name: _____ Date: _____

Mark True or False

1. An in-home aide should follow the client's plan of care and respect the client's preferences within the aide's assigned duties.

True ☐

False ☐

2. An in-home aide may share information about a client with the client's family member because family members automatically have a right to know.

True ☐

False ☐

3. An aide should explain what they are going to do before providing hands-on personal care.

True ☐

False ☐

4. It is acceptable to discuss a client in a restaurant or other public place as long as you do not use the client's full name.

True ☐

False ☐

5. An aide may take a picture of a client's home for personal use as long as the client is not in the picture.

True ☐

False ☐

6. A client has the right to accept or refuse services.

True ☐

False ☐

7. An aide may use a client's debit card or online banking information to make a personal purchase if the client gives permission.

True ☐

False ☐

8. If an aide accidentally sends client information to the wrong person, the aide should immediately report the mistake to the supervisor or designated privacy/security officer.

True ☐

False ☐

9. An aide may open a client's medical record simply because they are curious about the client.

True ☐

False ☐

10. A small skin tear is not important because older adults commonly have fragile skin

True ☐

False ☐